Adenariwo Abdulrahaman

Student, Self Employed

Department Of Mathematical and Computer Science

Department Of Computer Science

Fountain University, Osogbo Osun State

An enthusiastic undergraduate student with the passion for technology, i bring a little foundation in web development and a thirst for learning to become a full stack developer. Familiar with some languages like JAVA, FORTRAN, HTML, CSS, SQL. Driven by curiosity for exploring new technologies, i am eager to dive into areas such as full-stack developer or software developer to broaden my skills.
